

6 issues with Globalism

Is a Globalist agenda intrinsically bad for any nation?

1. CENTRALISATION : A globalist agenda assumes that decisions made centrally are better than decisions made by individual nation states
2. ELITISM : A globalist agenda assumes that decisions made by a few are better than decisions made by many
3. UNELECTED : A globalist agenda places control in unelected officials, thereby denying any input from the populations effected. If it is unelected then it is unaccountable to the people.
4. UNQUALIFIED : A globalist agenda gives total powers to persons unqualified for that power - in terms of their past history, training, character and abilities.
5. ONE SIZE FITS ALL : A globalist agenda takes no account of differences between nations and people's in terms of their individual needs, prior health
6. CORRUPTIBLE : A globalist agenda has a maximum risk of corruption since the rewards for any action based on personal gain will be global in size.
